Volume IX of the . . .

1964 KENEU

091.02.196

Foreword

Symbolic of North Dorchester High School students is the active interest in the variety of classes and activities offered at the school. The students are ever reaching higher to attain their goals. Thus the 1964 Keneu's theme of trees reaching to unlimited heights is fitting.

Not only is it fitting for the students, but also for the teachers who guide the students along their paths of learning and who must be also reaching toward new heights to give the students an education that will create useful citizens.

Also, the Keneu theme gives the theme of the school. North Dorchester High School strives to reach its students through interesting classes, a variety of sports and clubs, which include honors and awards for those who "reach" forward to attain goals set down for them, and through constant searching for better methods of educating the young.

SNAPS

These pictures, without captions, were snapped during party, leisure, and hard working times to show the students of ND at various moments during their busy lives.

N.D. Welcomes AFS Student Dia Dallasta

North Dorchester's first AFS student, Dia Dallasta, from northern Italy, brought to the student body an understanding of her country's life and customs. Speaking at assemblies, leading discussions in classes, and participating in school functions, Dia taught as well as learned. While she was a member of the senior class, she was a friend and inspiration to the entire student body.

The Keneu, on behalf of all those who had the opportunity of knowing Dia, would like to thank Italy for her gift to us this year. The community and students hope we can have another student like her next year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

NDHS

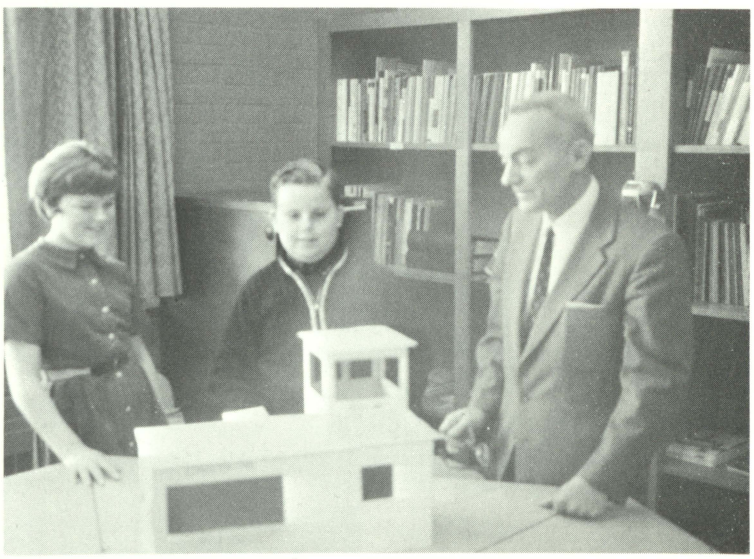
TRUTH VALOR

HONOR

Organized nine years ago under the guidance of Mr. Robert Vincent, the Student Council strives to serve the student body by securing for them varied rulings or utilitarian objects.

This year's Student Council under the leadership of Denny Gemeny, president, sponsored several activities to give the school a press box for the football season.

The "sale" of lots from the football field plus the sale of refreshments from the concession stand were only a few of these activities. As yet, the press box has not materialized but the project is well on its way.



Mr. Vincent shows the Student Council scale project to Debbie Blake and Donny Higgins.

International Honorary Society for High School Journalists

These two national honorary societies serve ND in various ways. The Quill and Scroll under the sponsorship of Mrs. Donald Bradley and Mr. William Wheatley was reorganized this year and has been working toward the improvement of the school's newspaper and yearbook. The members of the Kiakime Chapter of the National Honor Society served as receptionists in front of the office and have formed an AFS chapter at North Dorchester.

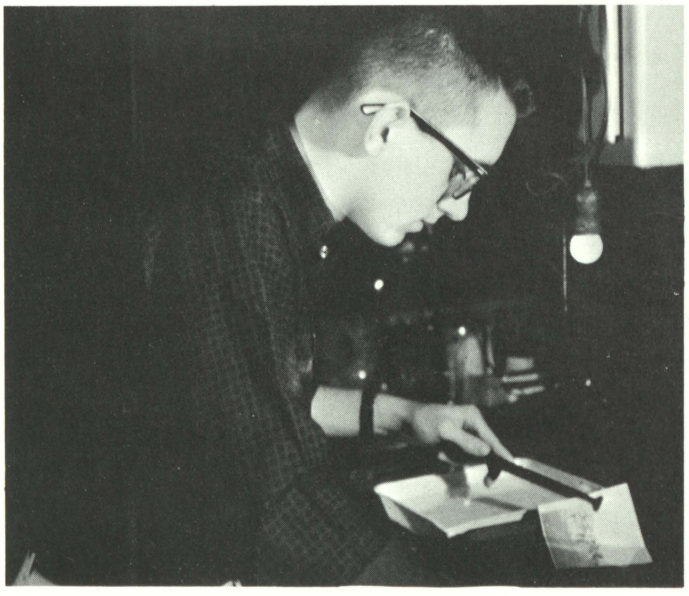
Eagle Staff Keeps N.D. "Up-to-Date"

Sponsor, Mr. Willam Wheatley, discusses the Eagle with editor, Linda Webb.



Charles Adkins, photographer, works in the dark room developing pictures. George Sellers, also photographer, was absent from picture.

Joanne Collins, reporter; Betty Mumford, Feature Editor; Linda Webb, editor; and Joy Messick, News Editor work to send the "Eagle" to press.

Each month about two weeks was set aside for the Eagle staff to work on this publication. Stories, ads, and pictures were assigned to the members responsible for having their jobs done promptly due to the strict deadline. Members of the staff also typed the stories and put the paper together.

The goal for this year's staff was to claim top honors at The Columbia Press Association as previous "Eagles" have done.

However, putting the paper together was not all the staff did. It also sponsored the "Sadie Hawkins Dance."

Marc Arceneaux, cartoonist for the "Eagle" draws his monthly cartoon, Oliver.

The Band Swings into Tune

The band, directed by Mrs. Frank Baynard, performed at games and at pep rallys.

Being versatile, the band also performed at the Spring Concert, Candlelight Services, and graduation.

Organized nine years ago, the band has kept approximately forty-five members throughout the years. The participating students come from grades seven through twelve.

The pep band performs at a basketball game.

Glee Club and Band Present 1963's Annual Spring Concert

Glee Club Sings at Seasonal Concerts and Graduation.

Mr. William Naugle, conductor of North Dorchester's Glee Club, goes over music with accompanist Audrey Reid in preparation for Candlelighting.

North Dorchester's all girl Glee Club brightened our days this past year with several outstanding performances. One of the most beautiful concerts was the annual Candlelighting ceremony at Christmas. This year's service featured solos by Donna Goswellen, Sharon Lofland, and Joanne Collins and some group numbers. A spring concert presented numbers from recent hit Broadway plays. Graduation was the club's final performance for the year.

Rehearsing sopranos include (L. to R.): S. Peterson, K. Deane, M. F. English, J. Harding, D. Goswellen, B. Mumford, J. Williams, J. Collins, M. Frase, M. Fairall, C. Brinsfield, M. Head, D. Shrieves, B. Brown, H. Bennett, and S. Ellis.

Joanne Collins, Linda Webb, and Donna Goswellen formed a trio this year and, accompanied by Mr. Naugle, sang at several functions in the community. Here they perform at the Keneu's bazaar.

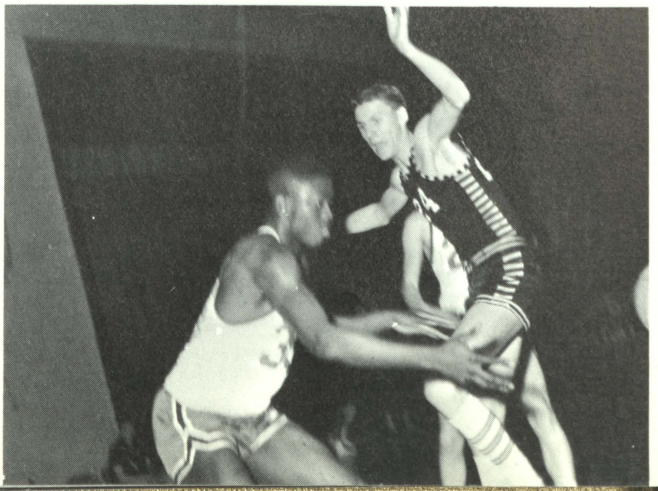
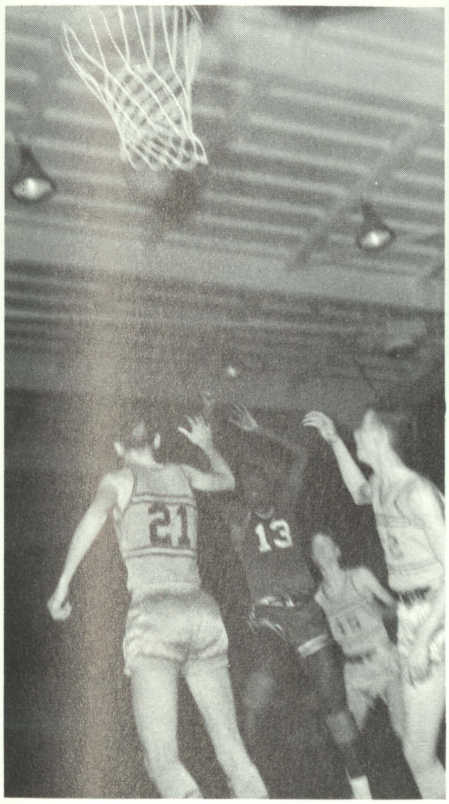
ND's new head coach, Mr. Earl Reddish discusses strategy with his players during a game with North Caroline. Because of the lack of varsity returnees, Coach Reddish had to struggle through a rough season while developing his younger players. Players over the century mark in scoring were seniors Larry Pinkett, 148, Steve Reid, 104, and Richard Blake, 132. Juniors were Don Smith, 134, Hobart Rogers, 103, and Howard Brohawn, 122.

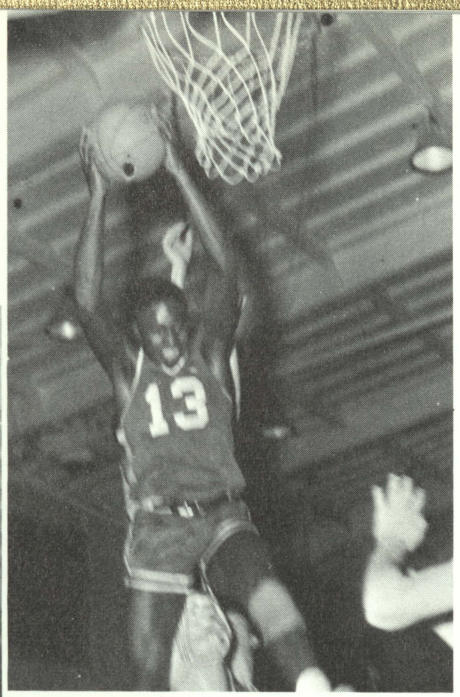
Eagle Basketballers

Passing the ball off in game against Cambridge is senior center Larry Pinkett. This 65-43 loss to Cambridge is considered the Eagles' best game of the season.

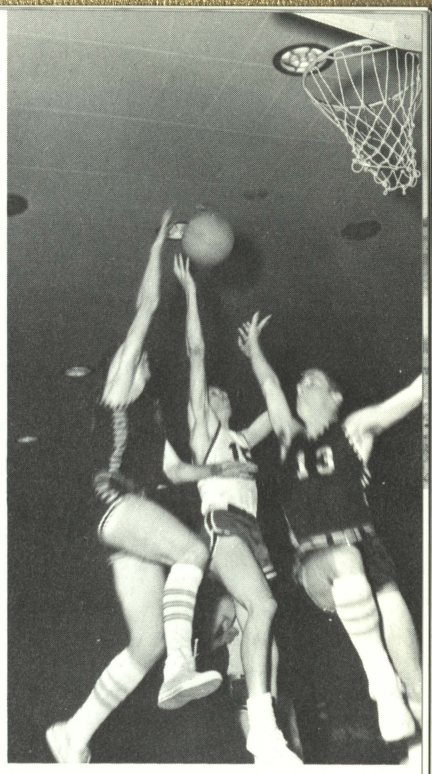


Eagles' Larry Pinkett, 13, gets off a jump shot in game with Mardela. Pinkett was the team's high scorer with 148 points during the season.





Clearing the backboards with another rebound is Larry Pinkett, 13. Pinkett led the club in rebounds for the second consecutive year.



Don Smith, 15, lays it up and in for two points against Cambridge. Smith scored 134 points during season.

Junior High Plays Intramurals

Members of the eight grade football team gang tackle the opposing teams' ball carrier in seventh-eighth grade football game.

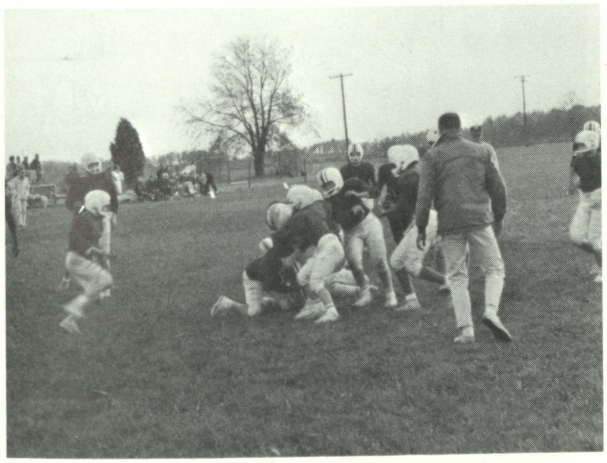
Top: Members of the girls' intramural teams fight for the ball in one of their weekly games.

Below: Players fight for the ball in one of the intramural basketball games which were held each week during club period.



Left: Players practice the fundamentals of football so that they will be good atheletes when they play varsity ball.

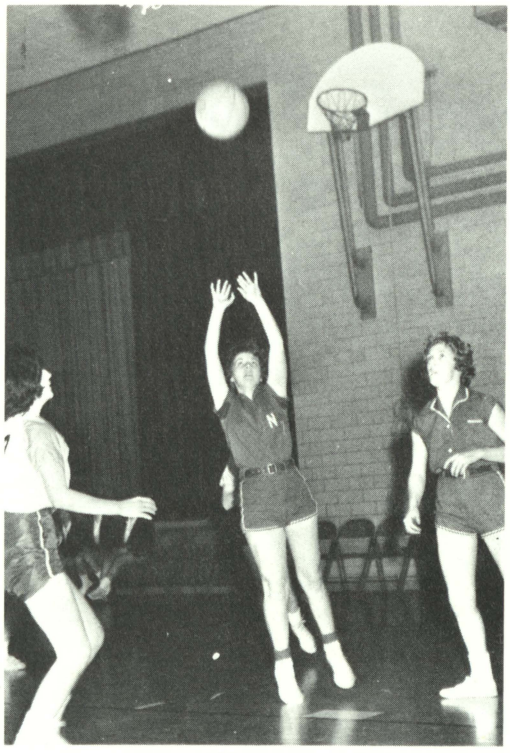
Eaglettes Play



Sharon Era takes a set shot from the side, while Sharon Lankford waits for rebound. During the season Era and Lankford tied for high scorer with a total of 124 points.

Linda Wheatley, 19, fights off two Cambridge Raidettes for rebound. Sharon Lankford, right, and Jeanette Short help out.

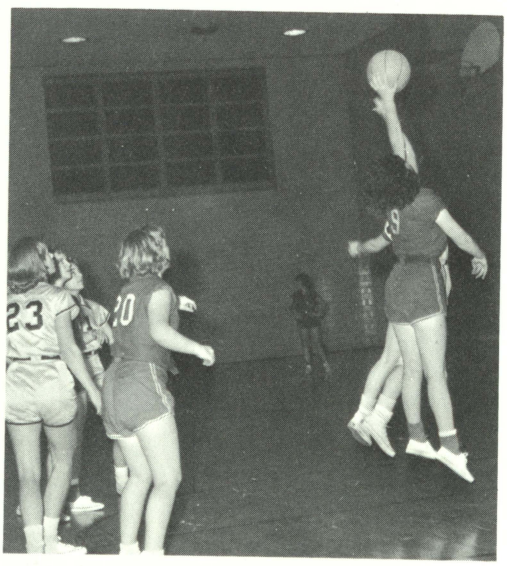
Eaglettes' Sharon Lankford goes up for a jump shot while being guarded by a North Caroline player.

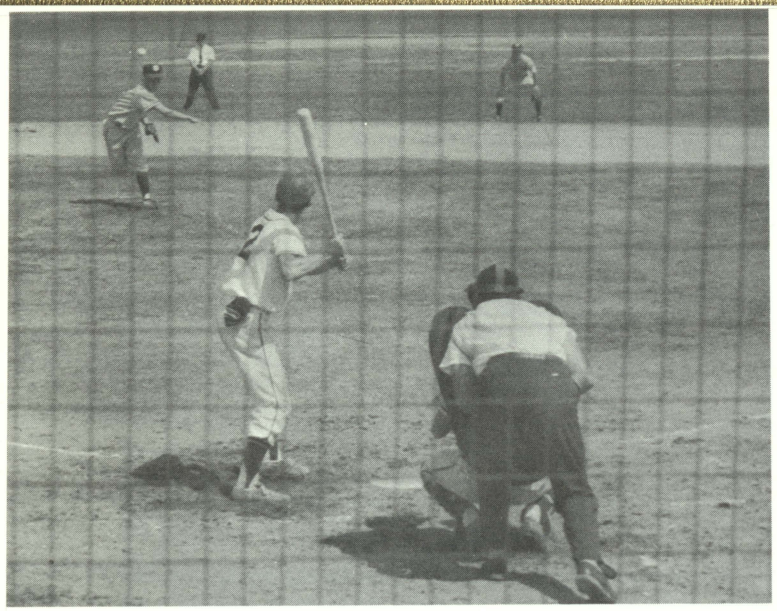
Exciting Basketball

Eaglettes' Sharon Lankford out jumps opponent and taps the ball off to Sharon Era.

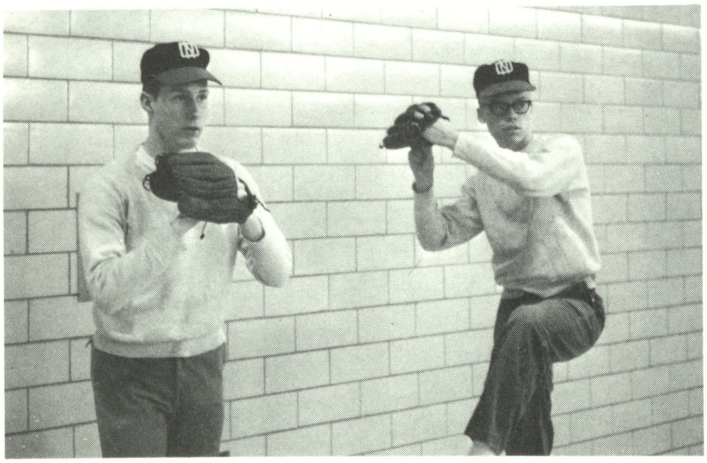


Sharon Bell, 9, taps the ball off to Jeanette Short, 20.

N.D. Teams Begin

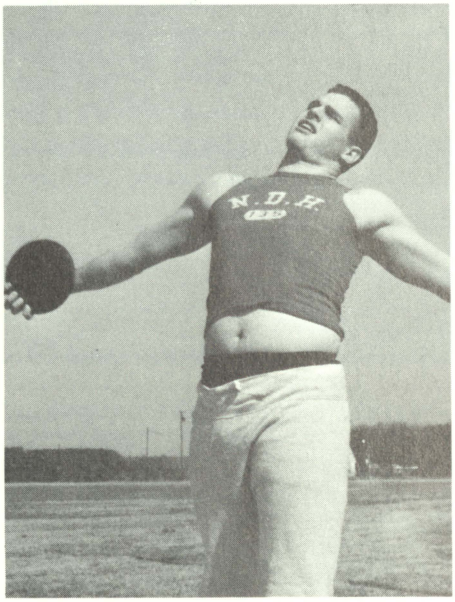


Eagle pitcher Charlie Bounds fires a fast ball toward the plate. Second baseman Richard Blake is set to field the ball.

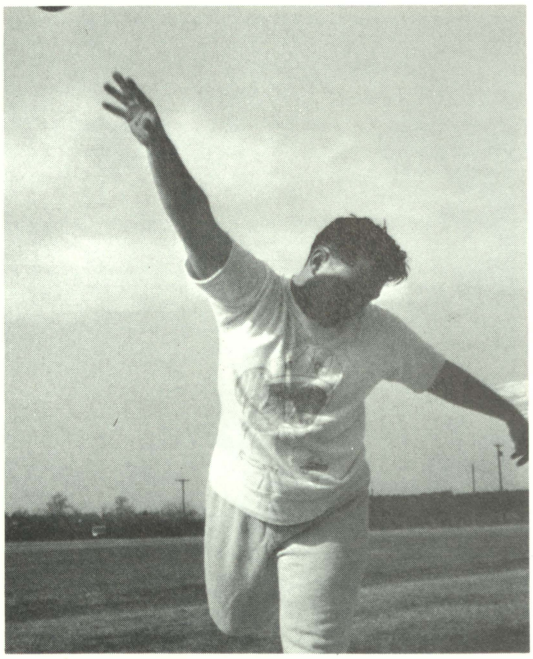


Righthanders, Paul Medford, left, and Charlie Bounds, warm up during early indoor practice. Eagle hopes of improving last years' 6-5 record depend on Medford who had a 5-1 record in 1963 and Bounds who had a 2-1 record in American Legion.

Ned Era gets set to heave the discus.



Left: Charles Adkins, left, and Larry Pinkett practice running 100-yd. dash. This year, Adkins hopes to better his time of 10.4 seconds.

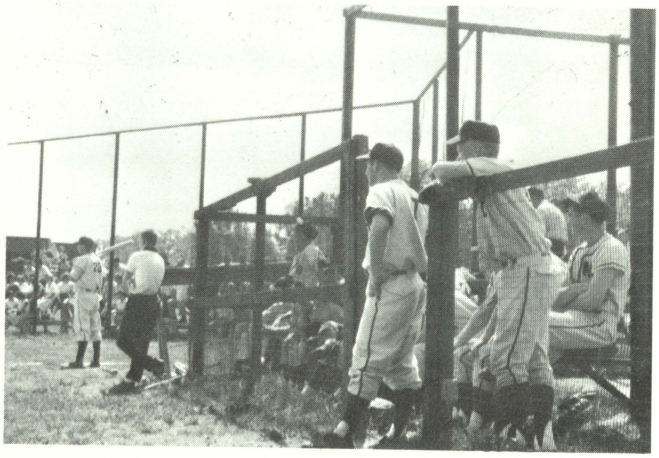


Ben Harvey practices throwing the shot put.

Spring Training

Denny Gemeny, Eagle first baseman, takes the throw from shortstop Steve Reid in time to get the runner out.

Larry Pinkett shows good form as he practices running the high hurdles.



Eagle players watch the game with great interest as their team tries to win another game.

ND girls begin practice for the up coming volleyball season. Returning seniors are Sharon Era and Joyce Wheatley.

Juniors Faye Bramble and Linda Wheatley watch as Jeanette Short practices serving.

'63 Prom: "Moon River"

What we are
Is God's gift to us;
What we become
Is our gift to God.

Like Trees, Are Tall and Stately

The 1964 senior class has constantly strived to achieve the best throughout the years. This characteristic is shown in their presentation of the class play, "Grandma's Best Years," and in the Senior High Christmas Dance. With the theme, "Moon River," the class gave the Junior-Senior Prom in 1963 for the 1963 Senior class.

These students have enthusiastically attacked sports events, a variety of clubs, as well as their studies. It was this class who first was given the chance to take Latin and algebra in the eighth grade. This year's graduates will enter all vocations using the training they have received here at North Dorchester.

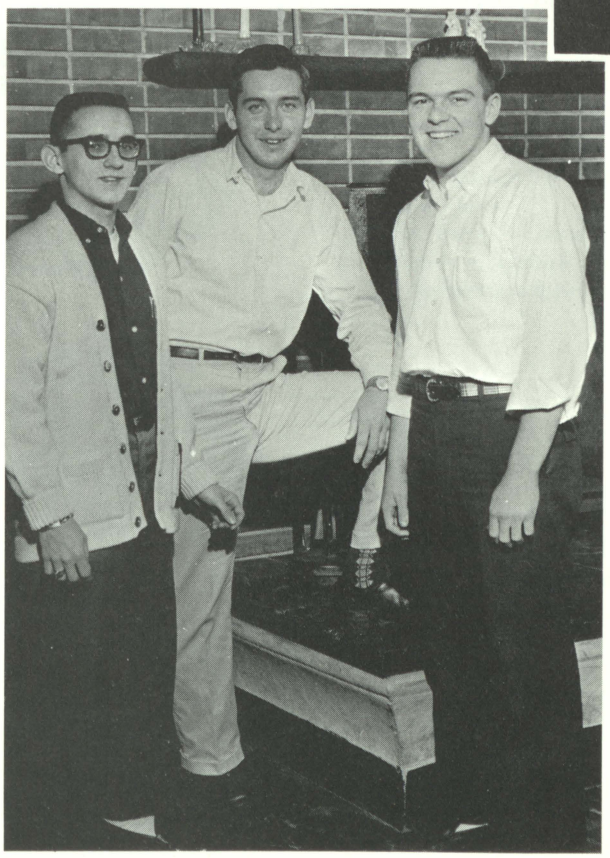
Seniors Achieve

Betty Crocker winner, Linda Webb, poses prettily after demonstrating her knowledge of homemaking.

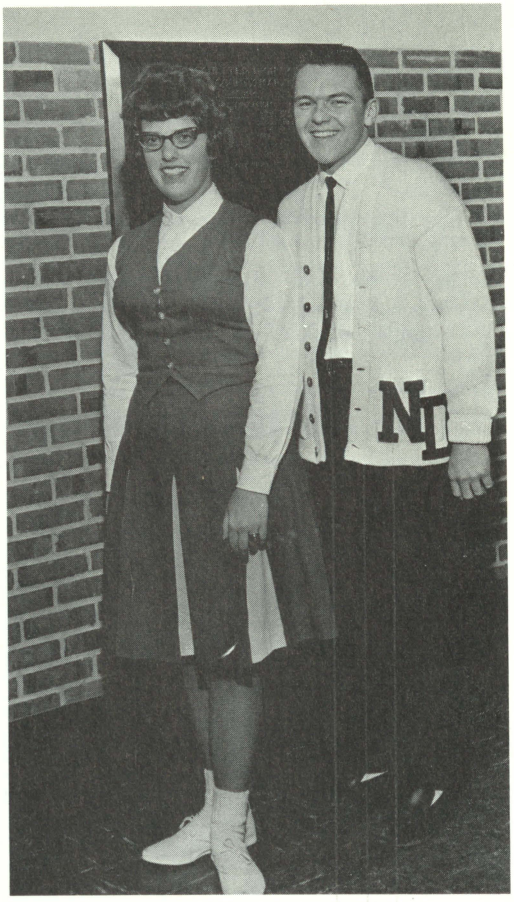
The three top scholastic seniors, Gail Handy (3rd), Laura Ann Bell (2nd), and Charles Adkins (1st), relax by the ND fireplace.



Three honor citizens, Charles Adkins, Web Eskridge, and Denny Gemeny, discuss their trip during the summer to Boys' State at College Park, Maryland.

Recognition in All Fields

Mr. Charles Isenburg congratulates Denny Gemeny on winning the American Legion Oratorical Contest.



Elected by the student body as the two students displaying the most school spirit were Joanne Collins and Denny Gemeny.

Girl state attendants who spent a week in Annapolis in June, 1963 were Frances Fleming, Phyllis Medford, Linda Webb, Joyce Wheatley, and Joanne Collins.

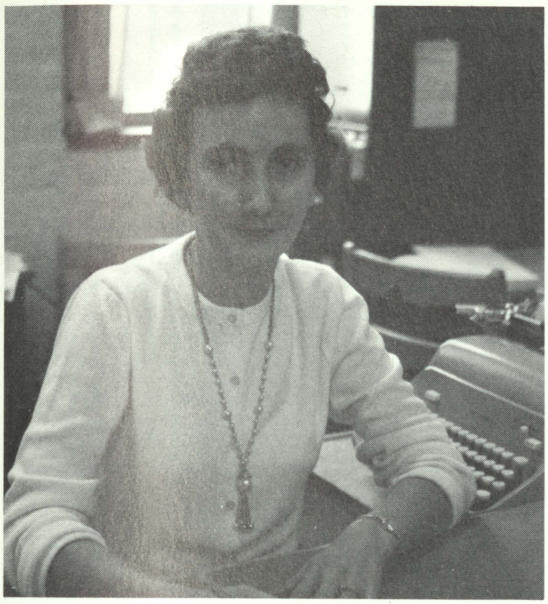
Joanne Collins won both the school and county DAR contests and was rewarded with a tour of Annapolis in February.

IN MEMORIAM

Bobby Dickerson

The senior class of 1964 gives this page to the memory of Bobby Dickerson who was killed in November of 1961 in an automobile accident. The class as well as any who knew Bobby will not forget him or his contribution to the school, his classmates and his friends.

ND's Behind-the-Scene Workers Function Smoothly



Mrs. Nancy Trego joined the N.D. staff in February, 1964, as school secretary. She replaced Mrs. Wanda Creighton who resigned.

Sweep that floor! Empty that trash! Wash those dishes! All this and more — that's the job of North Dorchester's efficient staff. The Cafeteria staff, shown below, consists of: SEATED — Mrs. T. Todd, Mrs. L. Hackett, Mrs. J. Medford, STANDING — Mrs. D. Jones, Mrs. H. Jackson, Miss D. Henry, Mrs. M. Bell, and Mrs. E. Vaughn. Pictured at right are Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Vaughn, who head our custodial staff.

THE KENEU

North Dorchester High School

Hurlock, Maryland

Dear Reader:

The production of a yearbook involves much work often little realized by the purchaser. In order to improve the quality of the yearbook you have just looked through, the Keneu staff increased the number of pages to give the buyer more pictures and, we hope, better pictures through which you can review the past year at North Dorchester.

Also added this year were full-color end sheets picturing NDHS in all its beauty. Special write-ups were given each of the clubs plus special art work making this yearbook one we, as editors, hope you have enjoyed and will return to many times.

In order to have a yearbook such as we believe we have produced this year, the staff must work together. We sincerely believe they have, and we thank them for this. We especially wish to thank Susan Peterson, who was chosen by the staff as the staff member who contributed the most to the publication, other than the editors-in-chief.

Without the special aid, patience, and watchfulness of Mrs. Sylvia Bradley, the advisor, this yearbook, as well as the bazaar we sponsored this year, would not have been possible. This can also be said of Mr. Bill McAllister, the representative from the American Yearbook Company, who was never too busy to answer questions and offer suggestions. To these two we also owe thanks.

Those purchasing the Keneu, as well as those who bought ads, are sincerely appreciated for helping to make this yearbook a successful one.

You, the purchaser, were especially responsible for our wish to make this yearbook high in quality. We hope we have achieved our goal.

Sincerely,

Laura Ann Bell

RESPONSIVE READING

Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

Get wisdom, get understanding; forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.

Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honor, when thou dost embrace her.

She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many.

I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths.

When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straightened; and when thou runnest, thou shall not stumble.

Take fast hold of instructon; let her not go; keep her; for she is thy life.

The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

"FOR THE BEAUTY OF THE EARTH"

For the beauty of the earth, For the glory of the skies
For the love which from out birth
Over and around us lies:
Lord of all, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise

For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon, and stars of light:
Lord of all, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

For the joy of ear and eye;
For the heart and mind's delight;
For the mystic harmony
Linking sense to sound and sight:
Lord of all, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

For thyself, best Gift Divine.
To our race so freely given;
For that great, great love of Thine
Peace on earth, and joy in heaven:
Lord of all, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

Amen

"GOD OF GRACE AND GOD OF GLORY"

God of grace and God of glory,
On Thy people pour Thy power;
Crown Thine ancient Church's story;
Bring her bud to glorious flower.
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
For the facing of this hour,
For the facing of this hour.

Lo! the hosts of evil round us
Scorn Thy Christ, assail His ways!
Fears and doubts too long have bound us,
Free our hearts to work and praise.
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
For the living of these days,
For the living of these days.

Cure Thy children's warning madness,
Bend our pride to Thy control;
Shame our wanton, selfish gladness,
Rich in things and poor in soul.
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
Lest we miss Thy kingdom's goal,
Lest we miss Thy kingdom's goal.

Save us from weak resignation
To the evils we deplore;
Let the search for Thy salvation
Be our glory evermore.
Grant us wisdom,
Grant us courage,
Serving Thee whom we adore.

Amen

"DEAR LORD AND FATHER OF MANKIND"

Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
Forgive our foolish ways;
Re-clothe us in our rightful mind,
In purer lives Thy service find
In deeper reverence, praise.

In simple trust like theirs who heard,
Beside the Syrian sea
The gracious calling of the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word
Rise up and follow thee.

O Sabbath rest by Galilee!
O calm of hills above,
Where Jesus knelt to share with thee
The silence of eternity,
Interpreted by love!

Drop Thy still dews of quietness,
Till all our strivings cease;
Take from our souls the strain and stress,
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of Thy peace.

Amen

"SAVIOR AGAIN TO THY DEAR NAME WE RAISE"

Saviour, again to Thy dear Name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of praise;
We stand to bless Thee ere our worship cease,
And still our hearts to wait Thy word of peace.

Grant us Thy peace upon our homeward way;
With Thee began, with Thee shall end the day:
Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
That in this house have called upon Thy Name.

Grant us Thy peace, Lord, through the coming night,
Turn Thou for us its darkness into light;
From harm and danger keep Thy children free,
For dark and light are both alike to Thee.

Grant us Thy peace throughout our earthly life,
Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
Then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
Call us, O Lord, to Thine eternal peace.

Amen
